Vint Thesis

Laurent Ponsot, the famous Burgundian winemaker, left his world-renowned family domaine over four years ago to make his own wines with grapes sourced from the best vineyards in Burgundy. Leaving his family domaine, which produced and continues to produce some of the most sought-after wines globally, was front-page news across the wine world.

To capitalize on this event, we have sourced some of his An Zero wines, which are the first vintages of his new venture to be released. Like a rookie card in baseball cards, this factor drives extra demand. Secondly, Laurent Ponsot plans to launch a book in the next few years. This newsworthiness may drive additional appreciation. Finally, these wines are priced at a 13% discount to the lowest values on the market, offering a compelling arbitrage.

Investment Highlights

KEY POINT #1:

Pricing Arbitrage

Vint has strong connections within various global distribution networks. This allows us to acquire wines, like the Laurent Ponsot Collection, at advantageous pricing. In comparison to Liv-Ex (the low values on the market), the collection is priced at a $6,000 discount.

Ponsot Pricing Arbitrage
Liv-Ex Market Value	$52,075
Vint Offering Price	$46,000
Arbitrage	13%

KEY POINT #2:

Rookie Vintage & Scarcity

A famous winemaker leaving their family Domaine is a rare occurrence, especially for a domaine that is nearly 150 years old. We view this as a tremendous opportunity to source some unique "rookie vintage" wines. On top of the "rookie vintage" bump, we believe we are the only people in the United States with these wines. As per Wine Searcher, there are no US-based offers for these wines.

KEY POINT #3:

Upcoming Catalysts + PR

Laurent Ponsot was a central figure in the hit documentary Sour Grapes, which detailed the biggest wine scam in history. Following his efforts to bring down the fraudster Rudi Kurniawan, Laurent has added state-of-the-art technology to his packaging to prevent forgery and wrote a book about the endeavor. The news of the book and the new innovative wine packaging has already generated additional buzz around the new wines, thus increasing their desirability and value.
