Vint Thesis

As the undisputed king of whisky, The Macallan has an extensive and storied history of special releases and limited edition bottlings. The Macallan Archival Folio series was launched in 2015 as an homage to its campaigns over the years, starting with those in the 1970s and moving through the '80s and '90s in what will eventually be a 24-bottle series. To date, six bottlings have been released, and all of them are represented in this collection. The Vint Macallan Archival Folio Collection is currently one of only three offers of complete sets of all six bottles available worldwide.

The broader whisky market, as measured by the RW Apex 1000 index, saw gains of 6.58% in 2022, while RW 101's Macallan index gained nearly 10.68%. This growth came in the same year that traditional equities markets declined by about 19% as measured by S&P 500.

Due to their allocation model and the quantity produced, it can be extremely difficult for individual collectors to acquire all six of these bottles from a single source. Vint worked through our extensive sourcing network to acquire the complete set. Our thesis price is 14.93% below the lowest US retail price, if each bottle were purchased individually.
